

12. Should the sums arising from the before-mentioned subtractions be more than necessary, the surplus shall be divided amongst our three testamentary executors and the treasurer, in the proportion of their respective legacies.

13. We nominate Count Las Cases, and in default of him his son, and in default of the latter General Drouot, to be treasurer.

This present Codicil is entirely written with our hand, signed, and sealed with our arms. NAPOLEON.

Tjiis 2it?i of April, 1821.

LONOWOOD. This is my Codicil, or Act of my laxl Will.

Upon the funds remitted in gold to the Empress Maria Louisa, my very dear and well-beloved spouse, at Orleans, in 1814, she remains in my debt two millions, of which I dispose by the present codicil, for the purpose of recompensing my most faithful servants, whom moreover I recommend to the protection of my dear Maria Louisa

14. I recommend to the Empress to cause the income of thirty thousand francs which Count Bertraud possessed in the Duchy of Parma, and upon the Mont-Napoleon at Milan, to be restored to him, as well as the arrears due.

15. I make the same recommendation to her with regard to the Duke of Istria, DurocVs daughter, and others of my servants who have continued faithful to me, and who have never refused to be dear to me: she knows them.

16. Out of the above mentioned two millions I bequeath three hundred thousand francs to Count Bertrand, of which he will lodge one hundred thousand in the treasurer's chest, to be employed in legacies of conscience, according to my dispositions.

17. I bequeath two hundred thousand francs to Count Mnntholon, of which he will lodge one hundred thousand in the treasurer's chest, for the same purpose as above mentioned.

18. Item. Two hundred thousand francs to Count Las Cases, of which he will lodge one hundred thousand in the treasurer's chest, for the same purpose as above mentioned.

19. Item. To Marchand one hundred thousand francs, of which he will place fifty thousand in the treasurer's chest, for the same purpose as above mentioned.

20. To Jean J6rome Lewie,<sup>1</sup> the Mayor of Ajaccio at the commencement of the Revolution, or to his witlow, children, or grand children, one hundred thousand francs.

21. To Duroc's daughter one hundred thousand francs.
